The editorial board is proud to announce that since the beginning of 2015, this journal has successfully passed the evaluation of world recognized academic publishing teams, and has been included in the SCOPUS and WESTLAW databases. It marks our continuous efforts in maintaining the standard and quality of academic publications, also increases the visibility of published articles. We want to express our gratitude to all authors, reviewers, editors, and advisors of this journal. Notably, the board welcomes submissions from legal, managerial and interdisciplinary perspectives on IP issues across the world. In order to cover IP issues, we will not limit the scope of this journal to a single jurisdiction.

In this issue, the selected articles ranged from legal doctrines exploration to the economic analysis of patent values across various jurisdictions. It is evident that we have kept our promise in the editorial policy to maintain this journal a diversified channel for experts from both legal and non-legal backgrounds. In addition to expressing our appreciation to all the contributors that made this issue possible, we hope to have your support in the future to maintain the goal and quality of this journal.
